

Frequently Asked Questions

When does camp registration open?

Camp registration is now open.
Early-bird registration discount ends on Feb. 25, 2024.

Do you have a sibling discount?

A $40 discount per week will be offered for a sibling after early bird registration. Sorry, only early bird or sibling discounts apply.

What is Early-bird registration?

Sign up and pay in full by Feb 25th and receive a 20% discount.

What will my child do at farm camp?

Camp will be a fun filled day with activities based around our beautiful farm and the animals that make their home here. Most of the day they will be outdoors, tending to, feeding and caring for the animals. Collecting eggs, doing crafts and gardening. Each week will be a different theme.

What are your camp hours?

Drop-off begins at 9am and pick-up is at 1pm for half days and 5pm pick-up for full days. $5 per minute is charged for late pick up and due that day.

What should my child bring to camp?

Please send your child with the following items (labeled) each day:

- Water bottle
- Lunch
- Snack
- Sunscreen (already applied)
- Bug spray
- Closed toe shoes
- Hat / Extra clothes

What is your camper to counselor ratio? What will be the maximum of children at camp?

Our camper to counselor ratio will be 7:1. We will be limiting the total camp capacity to 30 children per week.

Do you pro-rate camp weeks/days?

We have single day available starting in April. Complete a registration now to be on the wait list. $100 per full day and $60 per half day.

What is your discipline policy?

We have a zero tolerance for any bullying or roughness to any other camper or animal on the farm. Should a camper violate this, they will be asked to leave and not allowed to return. We shall review and sign our behavior and safety contract on arrival of the first day of camp, letting them know what is expected while they are on the Farm. We want each and every camper to feel safe and have a fun packed week. All electronic devices need to be left at home or in their backpacks.

What is your cancellation policy?

Please see complete cancellation policy on website.
